

Our Anniversary culminated in a very successful Fall Festival

CELEBRATED

50 years of serving youth 1972 - 2022

Thank you to all the sponsors, supporters, volunteers, & donors who made this event and our 50 year history possible and successful!

2022 Program Outcomes

Youth increased marketable skills and have new options for their future.

Employment Readiness

"The staff were approachable. They did a great job communicating and finding opportunities that aligned with my interests."

"The program gave me the confidence to step out of my comfort zone."

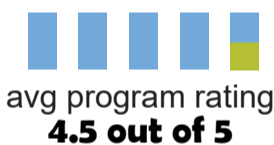

"The program helped me put my life back on track."

75 youth learned skills to obtain employment and succeed at work

100% of PROMISE Youth improved communication, money management and career planning

VISION Youth

Youth College Readiness Program

5 visits to colleges

90 applications submitted

68 parents engaged

over $500,000 scholarships awarded

100%

- of seniors were accepted into a college or university
- of students improved their grades
- of youth improved financial literacy

Youth chose responsible behavior and gained vital life skills.

Mentoring

248 students received

MENTORING in school

100%

- improved social skills
- satisfied with grades
- improved self esteem

Students' average satisfaction rating with their mentor

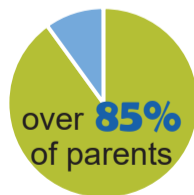

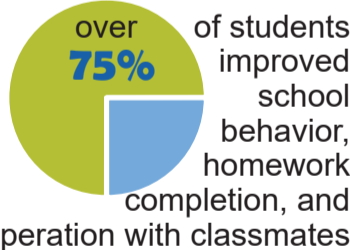

10

21st CCLC Afterschool Program

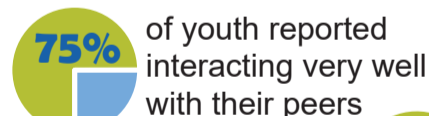

170 students served

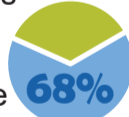

believed the program improved their child's confidence, provided needed academic help, and made an overall positive impact.

Community Youth Centers

8,321 visits

youth that improved confidence

95% of youth found the program to be helpful

Youth developed empathy & accountability through community service.

Station House Adjustment

81 teens completed 824 hours of mandatory community service as a consequence for a minor offense

youth AND parents rated the program

4.8 out of 5

4-H/ME Student Ambassadors of Community Health

- Wrote and illustrated a new children's story addressing anxiety for the Storybook Trail, which debuted at Middle Earth's 50th Anniversary Fall Festival.
- Refreshed street murals to improve safety.
- Began an art installation for the Bound Brook Memorial Library.

